

Mr. VALLIN.

Hôtel Olympic Casablanca.

Sergeant with French Military Mission in England from Sept. 1st, 1939 to French Armistice in 1940.

From 1935 to 1939, Member of French Chamber of Commerce in London. In 1938 appointed Agent for Moroccan Native Arts and Crafts in London under Office Chérifien de Contrôle.

Also supplier to Woolworth (London) * 3359

Was interpreter as a young to English Army, April 4, 1917.
ster

Mr. Vallin states that he called up at the Consulate to offer his services apparently six months ago being recommended by Mrs. Patton-Bethune.

He has been associated in some way with Mr. Charles
A. Pollock, apparently in procuring food stuffs in Morocco, ^{sup-} posedly for export to France.

Charles A. Pollock, - Société Agricole et Commerciale du Maroc, 7, avenue d'Amade, Casablanca,

Administrateur, S.A. MERLE and Co., Bordeaux-Casablanca.