

93, rue Coli,

Casablanca, November 26th 1942,

Mr. MAYER,
Vice-Consul,
United States Consulate,
CASABLANCA.

Dear Mr. Mayer,

I have had the following note handed to me and have not the slightest idea as to what the possibilities are. As I understand you are handling British Interests, perhaps you can give me an answer - or possibly it is a question which should be referred to Count Czapski.

" ROZENSTAJN Céline with her mother WARNO Malka and son Michel -

Polish nationality - Camp de Sidi El Ayachi.
The husband of Mrs. Rozenstajn is in England, mobilised in the Polish Army.
They wish to reach England."

Yours sincerely,

Leslie O. Heath.
