AMERICAN CONSULATE

CASABLANCA, Morocco.
December 4, 1942.

Mr. Leslie O. Heath
93, Rue Coli
Casablanca, Morocco.

Dear Mr. Heath:

With reference to your letter of December 1, 1942, I suggest that you request Messad BENRIMO, who claims to be a British subject, to present himself at the Consulate's Annex where his papers will be inspected and his nationality established.

With regard to the other man who claims to be an American citizen ~~you~~ should already have received a communication from Mr. Bagby.

Very truly yours,

For the American Consul General,
In charge of the interests of Great Britain,

Ernest de W. Mayer
Vice Consul.
