

Joy presented Phil with honorary life membership in Portuguese Red Cross with Red Cross identification card, boutonier and a very neat medal. Very nice gesture. Phil modest but appreciative.

Dinner with Kemler, went to his beautiful apartment afterwards to talk. Home by 1.15

Saturday, Aug 1

Quiet day in the morning, tho tried in vain to contact Andrieu. Finally arrived about one, with Lachaud, Jr. who promised to run around to get prices of the goods we asked for. After lunch, siestaed, talked with Lachaud, had tea with Thummy, prepared application for permission of Castro Caldas for food shipment.

Supper with Mario Neves, of DIARIO, very pleasant evening. He has many interesting ideas. A quiet, studious man. To Thummy's to get money for Caldas, stopped in to see Helen first, uneventful. Home about one.

Sunday, Aug. 2

To church with Pop, Father Williams preaching on sand and desert and dust, with the water of the Spirit if Christ refreshing the parched earth and people. Crap!

Lunch at Roposo's with Scott Lyon, Vice consul. Had an interesting discussion after lunch with him....a former chemical engineer, working on thesis on modern technical inventions and their influence on foreign affairs...My point of value put upon the inventions the important thing...the use to which they are put...
