Dear Leslie:

In response to your note of the 6th, I inquired in New York yesterday and confirmed the intention of the International Migration Service to establish representation in Casa Bianca, but in the limited time at my disposal was not able to do more than that.

I am wondering whether Miss Curtis' friend, who goes to Switzerland, travels either by way of Lisbon or Marseille. In such case, it would be very desirable for her to be in touch with our offices.

I expect to be in the State Department tomorrow morning, checking up on the passport situation.

Sincerely,

James G. Vail
