

difficulties of operations under present conditions.

Supper at Tivoli with Sport boys... Louis fascinated by gambling (always good for discussion); Vic down pleasant, refreshing person; Fred is usual. Much discussion of ~~and one from~~ a game Louis took to the bull fight, left holding the bag, at which Bryant had sworn bloody murder. Home by 11:15, read the Times of yesterday & so to bed.

June 7
Clear, hot.

Up at 8:30, first interview about 10:30. Spent most of morning with Arnholz, asking for more money. The Jewish Committee had given them a cut, but the chief grievance seemed to be Berghenloff of the Unitarians. They have worked