

July 30-9

This week has been quiet. Few people came in on Monday and Tuesday. In fact, only one refugee was in on Monday, asking us to send a cable to England and one who came for his 100 Esc. for the week. Worked on correspondence, had long nap recuperating from stomach upset during the night (two diarrheas), went to bed early.

Tuesday, July 28

Likewise quiet, one refugee came in to inquire about immigration news, if any. One asked ~~to~~ us to ~~send~~ mail some packages which he would supply...H. Winter Worked on checking individual authorization from Philadelphia for payments due to be paid by us.

Called on Harper who inquired about a former client of ours, Britain asking questions, as she was under suspicion after arrival in Eng.

Called on Pan Am airways to collect 200 Esc left by Citriolo. Brynat, however, had spent it and gave me an I.O.U.

Phil and I also stopped in to see Maria Sara Rodrigues Carrao d'Oliveira who had been very kind to Franca case, to give her some U.S. propaganda I had picked up from Legation that morning from Rewinkle, in press dep't.

Had supper with Doc. Jo, returned from Eng. Discussed shipment of food in bulk to French internment through Quakes and Int. Red Cross, about which he had heard in London from MEW man. We knew nothing of it. Talked of Eng. at war, belt still to be tightened, impression. Of Caldas, and bad feeling developing between Port. and refugees.
