Leslie Heath,
American Consulate,
CASABLANCA, Morocco

Dear Leslie Heath:

We hope you are finding things better than you anticipated and getting your program organized.

We are staggering along about as usual here. The report that visas are coming through for another 1000 USCOM children has cheered us all up.

A letter from Philadelphia carries the following item:

"Please tell Leslie Heath that Mrs. Jeanette Martin and her twins arrived safely in the United States on the Nyassa. She was met by her mother and Mr. Higgins, the representative of the Hormel Company. They proceeded to Austin, Minnesota - home of the Hormel Hams!"

Sincerely yours,

PHILIP A. CONARD

Since writing above, your good letter of the 14th has come in. It is grand to hear from you & know you are getting settled.
