We have received a letter from a certain Gaston Kempfner, at Ouseltia, Tunisia. He says he is sympathetic with Friends and would like to know more about them. In his own thinking he has rejected the notion of the sacrament and is searching "for a more spiritual christianity". He asks for literature in English or French about Quakerism, Unitarianism, or the Universals. I have sent his letter on to a French Friend here for his attention, It occurred to me that you might be able to write to him more freely than we could. He says that we can write to him in English.

Yours sincerely,
